THIS WEEK'S EVENTS

OPENING CONVOCATION

Sunday, September 23, 8:00 p.m., Miller Chapel
The Reverend George B. Telford, Jr., will be the speaker at the Convocation of the Seminary's 179th academic year. He is currently the Director of the Theology and Worship Ministry Unit of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). The Rev. Telford's topic will be "Needed: Theologians Among the People of God."

OPENING COMMUNION SERVICE

Monday, September 24, 8:00 a.m., Miller Chapel
President Thomas W. Gillespie will be the celebrant and Dr. Dennis T. Olson will preach at the opening Service of Holy Communion. Dr. Olson, who is assistant professor of Old Testament, will preach on "You May Die Now."

MEDIA TOUR

Wednesday, September 26, 1:30 p.m., LL9, Templeton
How do you communicate God's Word in a world with a short attention span? Here at Princeton, students can use state-of-the-art media production studios to help tell the truth of the Christian faith to people who seem to have little time to listen. And to tell it with integrity.

An informal seminar and tour of Studio Two will be conducted to introduce students to the use of media resources in ministry. Learn how you can integrate media into the preparation of course materials, and how you might participate in production for the Channel 12 campus cable network.

CPE RETURNEES

Friday, September 28, 12:30 p.m., CPE Office, Mackay Center Dr. Christie Neuger, Coordinator of the CPE Program, will conduct a meeting to give time for debriefing CPE experiences and will discuss options for enhancing and integrating these experiences into your overall ministry. Bring your lunch!

GENERAL NOTICES

SCHEDULE CHANGE

On opening day, September 24, 9:00 a.m. classes will meet at 9:40 a.m. All other classes will meet as scheduled.

URBAN MINISTRY FELLOWSHIPS AVAILABLE

The Fund for Theological Education is sponsoring year-long internships for seminary students interested in ministry in urban settings. Students will have the opportunity to work in Boston, Chicago, Philadelphia, Denver, Los Angeles and Montreal. A stipend is provided and scholarship support is given for the final year of seminary. For information on the nomination and application processes and further details about the program, contact the Office of Field Education at 497-7970. Deadline for contacting the office is Monday, October 15.

FIELD EDUCATION APPLICANTS

All students undertaking Field Education must first have a signed placement description on file with the Field Education Office. Applicants must also register for the appropriate section (FE01, FE03, etc.). Teaching church participants must also register for the practicum - EM71.

Seniors--to graduate you must complete two units of field education and submit the appropriate appraisals. If you have not met this requirement, please contact the Office of Field Education immediately at 497-7970.

PULPIT SUPPLY

If you are interested in supply preaching during the year, please stop by the Office of Communications/Publications, rm. 110, Administration Building, to register your interest.

DRIVERS NEEDED

Student Seminary drivers are needed for airport and train passenger pick-up. Good pay and flexible schedule. Good driving record a must. If interested, apply in person at the Housing Office, rm. 203, Templeton Hall.

FULBRIGHT GRANTS

Monday, October 1 is the campus deadline for applications for Fulbright grants for 1991-92. Applicants will be interviewed by the campus selection committee in mid-October. Please see Ellen Myers in the Office of Academic Affairs, 126 Administration Building, if you have questions.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF CHRISTIANS AND JEWS PROGRAM FOR SEMINARIANS

The National Conference of Christians and Jews sponsors a program entitled "Seminarians Interacting," which involves students from a variety of Christian and Jewish traditions. Five students from Princeton Seminary will be chosen to: (1) participate in a three-day visitation program with Jewish Theological Seminary (February 19-21, 1991) and (2) gather for a four-day retreat to discuss issues of understanding one's own faith tradition in light of other religious communities (April 14-17, 1991).

If you are interested in applying for the program for 1990-91, please submit a brief statement (two or three paragraphs) describing your background and interest in such an interfaith experience to Professor Judith Sanderson via campus mail by Wednesday, October 3. Middlers and representatives of racial-ethnic minorities are encouraged to apply. For more information, contact students who have been involved in the past -- Julie Cowie, Cheryl Elfond, Greg Faulkner, and Mark Griener -- or contact Professor Sanderson.

COMPUTERS FOR THE SEMINARY

The Seminary is eligible to participate in the "Free IBM Computers" program from Acme markets. Turning in your Acme gold register receipts, Scott paper symbols (Apple), Tastykake family pack symbols (UPC) and various product labels from the Campbells' family of products will allow the Seminary to collect credits toward the purchase of equipment for the computer lab that benefits all members of the Seminary community. Please send receipts and labels to the Computer Services Department. For further information, contact Lee Derr at ext. 7741.

SEMINARY CHOIRS

Anyone wishing to participate in either the Seminary Singers or the Chapel Choir should sign up on the bulletin board outside the Chapel office by Monday, September 24 for a vocal placement.

Seminary Singers will be composed of approximately 18 singers and rehearses on Tuesday evenings from 8:15-9:30 p.m. It provides musical leadership in worship on occasion and represents the Seminary in several on-campus and off-campus concerts and worship services, as well as making a choir tour during Spring break.

The Seminary's Chapel Choir is composed of about 40 singers and rehearses on Tuesday evenings from 6:30-8:00 p.m. It provides musical leadership in worship on Wednesdays and Thursdays as well as representing the Seminary in several on-campus and off-campus concerts and services each year. The Chapel Choir only may be taken for practicum credit as listed in the Catalog under MU12.

For further information, please contact Joy Saladino at ext. 7890.

ENTERING CLASS PHOTO ORDER

Orders are now being taken for entering class photos (entering students and students with spouses). Photos may be seen and orders placed at Templeton Hall, room 308. The cost per picture is $4.00 (paid in advance). Deadline for ordering photos is November 5.

DORM RESIDENTS

Your cooperation in maintaining a healthy dormitory is appreciated by all. Please return all food trays and dishes to the cafeteria as soon as possible. Do not allow trays/dishes to accumulate in rooms and/or hallways! This action creates a health hazard by attracting ants and roaches.

PRESBYTERIAN ORDINATION EXAMS

Open-book biblical exegesis--Students are requested not to staple their papers or have them bound in any way. Please type your examination number on the top righthand corner of each sheet and use a paper clip. The exegetical method should be on a separate sheet.

MEDIA PROJECT DEADLINE

Anyone planning to do a class-related media project with equipment and help from media services must get an application to Joicy Becker by October 29 to guarantee availability of assistance. For more information, see Joicy at media services or call 497-7959/7900.

FIELD EDUCATION STUDENTS

A reminder to all students who have received an "Unsatisfactory" field education grade either for the first or second semester of the past 1989-90 academic year or the 1990 summer term: Incomplete records must be resolved by the end of this current semester, January 31, 1991, or the "U" grade will be permanently recorded on the transcripts.

Also, any student being funded through Field Education scholarship funds must complete a W4 form at the business office.

(Please note that this is the Friday before the beginning of spring semester.) Students are encouraged to take this exam their first year in Seminary. Application forms are available in the Office of the Dean of Student Affairs and must be mailed with the fee to Louisville. Deadline is December 15.

N.B. December 31 is the deadline for new applications (from your presbytery) to take ordination exams February 15-16, 1991.

GRADUATE FELLOWSHIP FOR PARISH PULPIT MINISTRY

Once again this year the Seminary is able to offer a Graduate Study Fellowship for the Parish Pulpit Ministry to one or two members of the Master of Divinity senior class who will graduate next June. It is anticipated that the amount of these awards will be approximately $10,000. Information sheets and applications for the award may be obtained from the Office of the Dean of Student Affairs and all such applications must be returned to that office by 4:30 p.m. January 28, 1991.

ENTERING CLASS PHOTO

The class photo taken at orientation on the Miller Chapel steps is now available. All students who have previously paid for their photo may pick them up in Vocations and Admissions Office, room 308. Ask for Barbara Balcomb.

ALEXANDER & BROWN HALL RESIDENTS

If you need housing over any part of the Christmas vacation and have not yet returned your reservation sheet to the Housing Office, please do so immediately so arrangements can be made. Both dorms will be closed from Monday, December 24 through Saturday noon, January 5. Specific assignment for temporary housing will be received after December 17.

HODGE & ERDMAN RESIDENTS

For safety and security measures, the outside doors of these dorms will be locked from Monday, December 24 through Saturday, January 5. Please use your outside key to gain access.

ALEXANDER HALL RESIDENTS

The old storage room is ready for bicycle storage. As of December 1, all bicycles are to be stored in this new bicycle room. Do not chain bikes to railings or stairways. Custodial and maintenance personnel may remove any bicycle found chained and place it in the storage room in the basement.
A thank you to students who helped move items into the new storage room.

BLOOD DRIVE UPDATE

Thanks to all who donated at the fall blood drive. Sixty-five pints were given, about 12-15 below last fall's contribution. The spring blood drive will be April 10--mark your calendar!

If you would still like to donate, a call to the Princeton Red Cross (924-2404) is all it takes. Be sure to have it credited to PTS.
